About Uttarakhand Chardham Yatra

Following the tradition of commencing the yatra from the West and ending in the East, the Chardham Yatra starts from Yamunotri, followed by Gangotri and concludes in Kedarnath and Badrinath.

These holy regions are home to four sacred rivers, namely River Yamuna in Yamunotri, River Ganga in Gangotri, River Mandakini in Kedarnath, and River Alaknanda in Badrinath.

It is said, "one who visits all these holy places once in their life achieves eternal salvation or moksha."
